

Check list of Hong Kong Beat's services

Party Package (6 hour function)

- DJ – yes, whole function from set up to knock down, whether music needed throughout or not.
- Master of Ceremonies – (if required) at no extra cost (unless required to attend a significant number of rehearsals or at times that may impact on other business dates).
- PA system – yes, suitable for most member club, restaurant and small to medium ballrooms encountered in Hong Kong.
- Lighting – yes, 'full house' club lighting effects, moonbeam/mirror ball effects, moving heads, and wash lighting for dance floor and DJ area. All computer coordinated and controlled.
- Effects – yes, atmospheric smoke/haze with (optional) scented smoke.
- Additional lighting and effects – yes, 60s/70s look disco effects, UV/blacklight, 'star field' and 'sky wash' lasers, strobes, image wheel projection effects.
- DJ table and cables – yes, only thing required is a stable and suitable power source.
- Coordination with other entertainers – yes, subject to discussing their needs with them and making suitable arrangements.
- Song medley/mashups – yes, for set dances, within reason - don't expect David Guetta style productions, well, close enough anyway ;-)

All Packages

- Meetings with client/planners – yes, as often as reasonably required to discuss and finalize requirements.
- Coordination with venue – yes, as often as required to finalize set up, power requirements, load in and out logistics, as well as any other event related needs.
- Music playlists – yes, happy to accommodate client's needs, but caution against being too restrictive to ensure enjoyment by all guests.
- Song requests – yes, happy to accommodate within the needs of the event, and based on DJ's judgment of the dance floor mood and appropriateness.
- Song content awareness – yes, sensitive to cultures and age groups by avoiding highly explicit lyrics/content or controversial subjects/contents/entertainers when appropriate.
- Music diversity – yes, extensive collection of music genres, classical and World music and more than 8 decades of popular music. Very happy to learn and source anything that I don't already know or have!
- Outdoor functions – yes, subject to stable (and safe) power supply, and some form of protection from the elements.
- Junk trips/tram parties – yes, happy to discuss how to accommodate.
